VACCINATION LAW HELD AS CRIMINAL

Editor The Washington Herald: I have read with much gratification your editorial on "Health Office Activities," and desire to commend the stand you take in favor of "regulation" by gentlemen who are given brief authority. That this power should be exercised in compelling parents who not only have no faith in vaccination, but believe it a crime committed on defenseless children in introducing into the system of a healthy child an odious poison, resulting frequently in revolting diseases, is bad enough; but for them to decree that this crime shall be committed by parents every five years in order that their children may attend the public schools, would not only be without "wisdom or common sense," but a primitive and barbarous example. CLARENCE E. DAWSON.

With 42,000 children in school and 5,000 holding back in dread of vaccination, Health Officer Woodward yesterday issued an order barring all children for two weeks who have been exposed to infantile paralysis.

With smallpox as scarce as snow and physicians disputing that infantile paralysis is contagious, the parents of unenrolled children are knocking at the doors of the board of education through the Anti-Vaccination Society, and the fight to break down the barriers of the law is growing. This is the third day of the new school term.

CASTLE CHILDREN APPEAL. Attorneys Darr and Balderston, representing the children of Charles Castle, who were denied admittance because they were not vaccinated, sent a letter to the board of education yesterday as their second step in the case that is to test the compulsory law. The letter reads:

As attorneys for Mr. Castle and the Anti-Vaccination Society, we have to inform you that on Monday last Mr. Castle, having first provided himself with two certificates from the principal of the Phelps School for the admission of his two children to the public schools—the younger to the kindergarten and the elder, aged six, to the first grade—presented the children to the teachers to whom the certificates were addressed, who, upon being informed that they had not been vaccinated, refused to receive them as scholars. Thereupon he interviewed Mr. Thurston.

TAFT COW JOINED BY BABY ON WAY

Room for Two at the White House Stables.

Why Pauline Wayne, the President's new cow, has not arrived from Wisconsin, was explained last night by a report at the White House stables that Mrs. Wayne has a baby.

Details are lacking, but the special car upon which the cow was shipped is overdue, and it was said last night that a delay had been caused by the interference of the stock.

"Take room for two," was the word received at the Executive barn on the phone when it had been reported from the West that the car was again on its way.

"Two what?" asked one of the stablemen.

"Two cows, er, I mean calves—no, you monkey, two cattle. Didn't you know Pauline had a baby?"

"No, I didn't even know she was married."

"Well, she is, and she had her family with her. Make room for Mrs. Wayne and daughter."

The request was complied with, and there is a big bed of fine hay in a stall for two at the White House stables.

The cow was presented to President Taft by Senator Stephenson, of Wisconsin, and shipped ten days ago from Marinette, Wis. She has a pedigree as long as her trip, and is said to be the finest Holstein in America. Her capacity is eight gallons of rich milk a week, to say nothing of the President's. The arrival is expected within the next two days.

LORIMER QUITS CLUB.

Stormy Session Before Senator's Resignation Is Accepted.

Chicago, Sept. 20.—After a stormy session to-night the Hamilton Club accepted Senator Lorimer's resignation. The action was taken in support of the attitude of the club at the request of Col. Roosevelt a few weeks ago. Other resignations will follow.

HELD FOR MURDER.

Physician to Face Charge in Drowning of Wife.

Watertown, Wis., Sept. 20.—Justice Parkinson, of Fox Lake, will issue a warrant for the arrest of Dr. William Hecker, of Watseka, Ill., on the charge of first degree murder, as a result of the drowning of Mrs. Hecker, August 29, under circumstances that indicated accidental death.

"All the evidence is circumstantial," announced District Attorney Katzing to-night, "but the evidence was so positive in its trend that I could do nothing but order the warrant issued."

The body, according to the report of the doctor who issued the death certificate, bears a two-inch wound on the forehead, inflicted before death and also black marks on the throat, also caused before death.

The doctor told that his wife was drowned from a boat in which they were rowing.

TAWNEY IS BEATEN BY SMALL MARGIN

Sydney Anderson Wins Hot Fight in Minnesota.

RETURNS NOT COMPLETE

H. T. Halbert Appears to Have Defeated F. C. Stevens.

Republican Primaries for Nomination of Candidates for Congress, Legislature, and County Offices Wax Warm, Interest Centering in First District, Balloting Indicating Victory for Young Attorney.

St. Paul, Sept. 20.—Primaries for the nomination of candidates for Congress, legislature, and county offices were held throughout Minnesota to-day.

Interest centers in the First district, and scattering returns indicate the defeat of Representative J. A. Tawney by a small margin by Sydney Anderson, a young attorney of Lanesboro. This probably will be the only change in the delegation to Congress, although there is a possibility of the defeat of F. C. Stevens in the Fourth district by Hugh T. Halbert. The polls were open until 9 o'clock, and returns at midnight are far from complete.

The fight on Tawney has been the warmest in the State, Anderson was brought out by the Progressive League, and few thought that he had any show. But he made a better campaign than anticipated, and unless returns are different he wins by a small margin. The winner will be opposed by H. L. Buck, of Winona, who had a clear field for the Democratic nomination.

Halbert did not get into the fight until three weeks ago, but made a whirlwind campaign.

Halbert Gets Big Vote.

The Stevens people did not see any chance of defeat until a couple of weeks ago, but since then Stevens has made a strong fight for renomination. Halbert has been in St. Paul politics for many years, always fighting the crowd that was in and always losing, but the sentiment against Stevens and against regulars generally has given him a big vote.

F. M. Nye, of Minneapolis, had a hard fight from A. H. Hall, but there was a reaction during the last couple of days which resulted in Nye's nomination. Einar Hoidal, who won the Democratic fight, will give him a good race for election.

W. S. Hammond, the lone Democratic member of the delegation from the Second district, is renominated. Frank Ellsworth, of St. James, and A. L. Ward, of Fairmont, are running close for the Republican nomination in that district.

C. A. Lindbergh, of the Sixth district, an insurgent, appears to be renominated over P. M. McGarry, of Walker, a man of stand-pat tendencies, who made a house-to-house campaign over the entire district, but did not state his position on any question.

Bents Progressive Candidate.

C. E. Miller, of Duluth district, also appears to be renominated over Alex. McKnight. McKnight ran on a progressive platform, and Miller, who was elected on an anti-Cannon platform two years ago, voted for Cannon for Speaker, but later sided with the insurgents on some questions. Alfred Jacques, of Duluth, is the Democratic nominee.

Halvor Steenerson, of the Ninth, appears to be renominated, although H. O. Bjorge, an insurgent platform, gave him a good run.

C. R. Davis, insurgent of the First district, and A. J. Volstead, regular, of the Seventh district, had no opposition and will have none at the election.

TWO MEN LYNCHED.

Italian Cigarmakers Victims of Mob in Tampa, Fla.

Tampa, Fla., Sept. 20.—Two Italians, Castagne Fierro and Angelo Albano, were lynched here to-night. They were taken from two deputy sheriffs, who were conveying the prisoners from the city jail at West Tampa, two miles to the county jail in this city.

Sixty men sprang into the roadway from behind pine trees, and covering the officers, made them give up the prisoners. About a mile from where the officers were relieved of their prisoners they found the Italians swinging from the limbs of trees in the edge of a swamp.

Fierro and Albano were charged with the attempted assassination of J. Frank Easterling, a bookkeeper for one of the cigar manufacturing firms which recently locked out their men, after a strike had been declared upon other factories.

SAVE NEGRO FROM MOB.

Officers Take Slayer of Police Chief to State Penitentiary.

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 20.—Norman Lewis, the negro who killed Police Chief Stallings, of Spring Hope, N. C., and who was captured to-night 109 miles from the scene of the crime, would have been lynched at midnight had not the officers having him in custody learned by wire of the plans of a mob waiting to take him from the officers when he got to Franklin County. To-night they placed Lewis in the State penitentiary at Raleigh, safe from the lynchers. Lewis said his wife and not he shot Stallings when he entered their house to arrest Lewis.

ABRUZZI IN PARIS.

So Is Miss Katherine Elkins, Say the Gossips.

Paris, Sept. 20.—The Duke of the Abruzzi reached Paris shortly before 2 o'clock to-night. He went at once to the Hotel du Rhin, where Miss Katherine Elkins and her mother have been stopping and where it is said they still are guests.

STUNG!

BRYAN A BOLTER ON STATE POLICIES

Made Plain by His Attitude Toward Dahlman.

QUESTION OF LIQUOR INTEREST

Declares Voters Have Opportunity to Uphold State Against County Option and Will Decide Whether Nebraska Goes Forward or Backward on Prohibition Issue.

Lincoln, Nebr., Sept. 20.—W. J. Bryan broke the silence which he has maintained on the State situation since his return to Lincoln ten days ago, and to-night issued a statement of his attitude toward the Democratic ticket, and especially the candidate for governor. The statement follows:

"I am just leaving for Missouri and shall be absent practically all of the time for about a month of campaigning in Missouri, Kansas, Iowa, and Illinois. After that I shall be at liberty to speak for Mr. Hitchcock, the Democratic candidate for Congress, and for the State ticket in Nebraska.

"In speaking for the State ticket, however, I shall not be able to present any arguments in favor of the election of Mr. Dahlman. His position on the liquor question makes that impossible.

"If Mr. Dahlman is elected it will be a declaration by the voters of the State against county option and against the 8 o'clock closing law. If he is defeated it will be a declaration in favor of county option and in favor of the 8 o'clock closing law.

"In other words, if the voters now have the opportunity to decide whether the State shall go backward or forward on the liquor question the present arguments in favor of going back would not only contradict what I have already said on the subject, but would embarrass me in the fight that I expect to make hereafter to save our party from the odium of being the representative of the liquor interests."

POPULISTS AND DEMOCRATS NAME OWN CANDIDATES.

Lincoln, Nebr., Sept. 20.—In the first time in six years there will be no fusion in Nebraska between the Populists and Democrats for governor at the primaries.

The Populists nominated Gov. Shallenberger, while the Democrats named Mayor Dahlman, of Omaha. Shallenberger, after his defeat for the Democratic nomination, declined that of the Populists and the State central committee of the latter met here to-day to fill the vacancies.

A conflict of opinions developed over which lists to follow, to leave the gubernatorial space on the Populist ticket blank or to make Senator C. H. Aldrich the Republican candidate, the Populist nominee. By a vote of 14 to 9 the committee after hours of debate decided against fusion with Republicans and to have no candidate.

Populists generally are opposed to Dahlman and are county optionists. Their refusal to indorse him is tantamount to a bolt, as the committee fused with the Democrats on all other State officers.

EXCURSION WRECKED.

Libson, Sept. 20.—An excursion train has been derailed near Oporto. It is reported that 150 persons were more or less seriously injured.

KILLS NEGRO ON TRAIN.

Special Agent Shoots Man Who Was Beating a Woman.

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 20.—Special Agent Oliver, of the Southern Railway, to-day shot and killed an obstreperous negro named Walter Coleman on a negro excursion train between Winston, N. C., and Danville, Va. The negro was beating a negro woman on the train and attacked the railway agent when he interfered.

AIR RACE HELD OFF.

Bad Weather Again Delays Trans-Alpine Contest.

Brigue, Switzerland, Sept. 20.—There was another postponement of the start of the aeroplane race across the Alps from this place to Milan, Italy. Snow fell last night, and this morning there was a high wind, accompanied by rain. There was a heavy mist over the Simplon, across which the airman will have to fly at an altitude of nearly 7,000 feet.

The authorities issued an order forbidding any attempt at flying before noon.

SHERMAN TROUNCED IN NATIVE COUNTY

Roosevelt's Progressives Put Over Well-laid Coup.

Utica, N. Y., Sept. 20.—Vice President James S. Sherman received a terrible wallop in the Oneida County primaries to-day and to-night in his fight for the twenty-three delegates from this county to the Republican state convention at Saratoga one week from to-day.

Sherman was defeated by the progressive element of the party in his own ward, the seventh of this city, by 56 votes. In addition the Vice President will undoubtedly lose the Second and Third assembly districts, but has won the First assembly district, composed of twelve wards in this city.

The indications late to-night are that the Vice President will have only eight of the twenty-three Oneida County delegates to support him in his fight for the temporary chairmanship of the State convention against Col. Roosevelt, but final results may give him additional support from his home county.

The victory of the progressives in Oneida County appears to be all that the most enthusiastic leaders had hoped for. They concede the First assembly district to the old guard and made their drive in the Second and Third districts.

It was a tremendous fight, this battle to humiliate the Vice President in his native county, but the progressives, with unlimited funds at their command and counseled personally by former President Roosevelt and Chairman Griscom, of the New York county Republican committee, laid their plans so carefully, and worked day and night to accomplish the victory which to-night appears to be theirs.

TWO KAISERS MEET.

Emperor William Guest of Emperor Francis Joseph.

Vienna, Sept. 20.—Emperor William arrived here to-day, and for two days will be the guest of Emperor Francis Joseph at Schoenbrunn.

EASY TO RAISE MAINE.

John F. O'Rourke Says So, After Making Soundings at Havana.

New York, Sept. 20.—There should be little difficulty in raising the wrecked battle ship Maine, according to John F. O'Rourke, who arrived here to-day from Havana. He went to Cuba to take soundings around the Maine.

"I am enthusiastic over the prospects of raising the wreck," he said. "The soundings and borings show that after sinking caissons around the bulk of the battle ship there would be little trouble in raising her."

Mr. O'Rourke brought plans and drawings of the position and condition of the battle ship.

BROWN WILL SETTLED.

Sons of Mrs. Bradley, His Slayer, Will Get $12,000.

Salt Lake City, Utah, Sept. 20.—The suit of Mrs. Anna Bradley to break the will of the late Arthur Brown, at one time United States Senator from Utah, will be settled by the payment of $12,000 to Mrs. Bradley's sons, according to an announcement by attorneys for both sides.

Brown was shot and fatally wounded by Mrs. Bradley in Washington, D. C., December 8, 1906. In his will he specifically denied the paternity of the two children, Arthur and Martin Montgomery, and cut them off with nothing. The estate amounts to something more than $70,000.

ROOSEVELT VEXED AT PRESS REPORTS

Issues Statement on His Conference with Taft.

HAD MADE NO REQUEST

Met the President on the Suggestion of Mr. Griscom.

Correspondents on Taft's Train All Sent Out Stories to Effect that Interview Was Sought by Roosevelt and that He Had Been Turned Down—Colonel Declares that the Meeting Was Enjoyable.

New York, Sept. 20.—Col. Roosevelt was somewhat vexed to-day at the newspaper reports of his meeting with President Taft in New Haven on Monday. He was especially displeased with the stories that state or inferred that he sought the interview, and that he had been mildly rebuffed by not getting what he wanted from the President.

Efforts of the most strenuous sort to discover either from the colonel or from Mr. Griscom the exact purpose of the meeting brought forth nothing satisfactory. Col. Roosevelt desired only to make it very plain to all that he went to New Haven at the request of Mr. Griscom, and not by his own seeking, and that he has no favors to ask of the President, and that he will have none.

Relations Not Changed. President Taft simply reiterated his hope that Mr. Roosevelt and the progressives would win at Saratoga. That, said the colonel, came unsought from the President. So far as could be learned, the meeting between the two will have no great bearing on the relations that have existed since Mr. Roosevelt returned from Africa. Certainly the colonel did not wish to say so, if the relations are changed.

It was pointed out to Mr. Roosevelt, as he sat in the contributing editor's office this afternoon, that the correspondents on the President's train had all made the statement that it was he who sought the interview, for the purpose of securing help from the President, and that he had been turned down. The colonel beamed silently. Then, after a few moments' reflection, he made this statement:

"Without any suggestion from me, Mr. Griscom asked me if I would be willing to meet the President, and I said that of course I would. He had at first mentioned New York as the place of meeting, but wired me at Syracuse that it would be New Haven, and thither I went accordingly.

Sought No Assistance. "I sought no help from the President and made no request of the President directly or indirectly, and had no request to make. Our interview was most cordial and pleasant, and without any question the request from me to the President stated to me that he hoped we would win at Saratoga, and that he so informed Mr. Griscom, his remarks being, in substance, those attributed to him in the dispatches from the correspondents on the Presidential train. Our meeting was enjoyable in every way, and I was glad I went."

Further than that the colonel had nothing to say concerning his New Haven trip. Barring an explanation of his reason for going, the announcement is practically the same as the one he gave out at Beverly in June.

Griscom a Caller.

While he was busily engaged in discussing the trip with the newspaper men in the Outlook office, the telephone bell rang, and Mr. Griscom was at the other end. He said he would like to see Mr. Roosevelt, and the colonel told him to come right over. The county chairman was in his own headquarters in the Metropolitan Life Building, a short distance away.

Mr. Griscom was closeted with Mr. Roosevelt for about fifteen minutes. He was evidently a bit distressed over the reports that the colonel had sought Mr. Taft, for when he emerged from the sanctum he said that he would have a little statement of his own to hand out to the reporters if they would step over to his office.

"I suggested to Mr. Roosevelt," read the county chairman's statement, "that he meet and talk with the President. Mr. Roosevelt said that he would be delighted to do so. There was no mention made by either of us of any purpose in the meeting. Mr. Roosevelt asked nothing of the President. The President volunteered to me that he was glad to reiterate his views expressed in his letter to me of August 20 regarding the situation of the Republican party in New York, and stated to me substantially what has appeared in the newspapers, telegraphed from the Presidential train. The meeting was most cordial in every respect."

Denies Misunderstanding. There was no misunderstanding between Col. Roosevelt and Mr. Griscom over the call on the President, and while the colonel was not pleased at what was said about him, he will call upon Mr. Taft in the future under similar circumstances. He will do it as a matter of courtesy.

As the time for the Saratoga convention approaches, the colonel is simply
